

1985

The University College of Wales, Aberystwyth
Department of Botany and Microbiology

Fourteenth Joint Meeting of the Microbiologists of UCW Aberystwyth with the Department of Microbiology,
University College Cardiff

Monday 11 March

8.00 pm A talk by the current Gregynog Arts Fellow - Clare Morgan. Her novel "A Touch of the Other" was a prizewinner in the BBC Bookshelf/Arrow competition. She was also a runner up in the New Poets Competition.

Tuesday 12 March

9.30 am Christine Harris (Aberystwyth)
Dielectric spectroscopy of microbial membrane systems.

9.55 am Mr N Mclure (Cardiff)
Plasmid involvement in paratoluidine degradation.

10.20 am Mr A Chapman (Cardiff)
Biochemistry of Trichomonas vaginalis.

10.45 am Coffee

11.10am Professor Harry Smith FRS (University of Birmingham)
The determinants of microbial pathogenicity.

Lunch

2.00 pm Meanderings in the Grounds - Mycological Excursions.
Afternoon

4.00 pm Tea

4.30 pm Dr John Hedger (Aberystwyth)
Solid substrate food fermentation.

8.00 pm Films (a) Charlie Chaplin
(b) Lisztomania - Ken Russell

Wednesday 13 March

- 9.30 am Mr P McClure (Cardiff)
Biodegradation of pharmaceutical effluents.
- 9.55 am John Oultram (Aberystwyth)
Transfer of plasmids in Clostridium acetobutylicum.
- 10.20 am Professor D Lloyd (Cardiff)
Basis of metranidazole resistance in Trichomonas vaginalis.
- 10.45 am Coffee
- 11.15 am Dr Bob Lovitt (Aberystwyth)
Ethanol production and tolerance by thermophilic bacteria.

12.00 am Quiz